There are animals in the kingdom, hyenas, lionesses, and I'm a giraffe. Our production of The Lion King Jr will be on May 5th and 6th. Save the dates and don't forget to buy your tickets!!

St. John's Basketball

Kevin Rush

Every year the basketball teams at St. John the Baptist do very well. All four of the teams are made up of good leadership, talented players, and great coaches. This year the teams are doing great, especially the varsity teams. Both teams deserve a round of applause for a great season.

The girls varsity team went 12-2 and clinched a playoff spot. Their only two losses were to Immaculate Conception, another great team.

The boys varsity team has 6 wins and 7 losses. Sadly, the boys team will not be going to the playoffs this year. The boys have had some tough losses to good and well-built teams. The boys will play one more game on Thursday, February 11th against OLA at St. John's.

As the seasons come to a close, the 8th graders will be recognized for their leadership and dedication to their teams at their final game. They will be missed! However, the 7th graders are already looking forward to their 8th grade season.

UPDATE: The St. John the Baptist School Girls Varsity Basketball Team came in second place in the NSEBBL!

The Giving Bracelet

Kathleen Guinivan

This Christmas you may have received toys, books, clothes, and more, but what about a gift that gives a gift back? I've noticed that a lot of people got something called a Lokai bracelet (I have three already). When you buy one, the money is given to the charity it represents.

A new one will come out almost every month, for example last month was red and the money was donated to Save the Children foundation. Lokai are growing more every month, the most popular was the pink Lokai and it donates to breast cancer which happened in October. This is a great gift that you can find on either the Lokai website or at the Paper Store. So if you have a special event coming up, you know what to look for.

Edmodo

Nina Tseitlin

Recently, Miss Saxonis has introduced us to an app (and website) called Edmodo. It's a great website that allows us to communicate from home. She will give us assignments and we can do them on there. We can post pictures and talk to each other. It's sort of like Facebook that's kid friendly. We are having a great time learning how to use it.

Ms. Recine who teaches 7th and 8th grade Social Studies introduced Edmodo to St. John's and her classroom earlier this year. It has been a great tool for teacher and students in the classroom!

Travel Log: Point Sebago

Leo Schroeder

Point Sebago, located in Casco, Maine, is the perfect summer getaway. It has golf courses, a big lake, houses, beaches, tournaments, an arcade, ice cream, and more! There is a carnival that happens a couple times each year, pumpkin painting, and a zip line. They also have canoeing, boating, and other water-related activities.

They also offer weddings and Broadway style entertainment. You can even rent a boat with a wakeboard, tube, or water ski. They even have a sandcastle building contest for professional sandcastle builders. When planning your summer vacation, don't forget to include Point Sebago!

Is St. John's Haunted? I Don't Think So!

Michael Donahue

For years people have been saying that St. John the Baptist School is haunted. Today I will be proving that's not true. According to my friends the art hanging from the lights were swaying to the sound of music coming from the 6B but when other students brought their friends to look, nothing happened. Still it remains a mystery if that is true or not. It may have been the wind. People also say the hallways are haunted. Sometimes noises come from the hallways, but probably people talking or shoes squeaking on another floor.

Finally, people say the bathrooms are haunted because they will flush on their own. I think the toilets automatic flushing system detected a fly or something. I think everyone can be sure that our school is not haunted.

Overpriced Video Games

David Donahue

What's up with video game prices now? Most games are $60 or more! You could buy so many other things with that amount of money, such as a winter coat or new shoes. One time I saw a game called Guitar Hero for $120. Why play guitar hero when you can actually learn to play guitar? Consoles cost even more money! The XboxOne was $500 when it first came out. You could buy 3 weeks worth of food for that price, a new bed, or even redecorate a room in your house. Video game prices need to be reduced!

Miss Saxonis is Great!

Kiara Farrar

Miss Saxonis is my 5th grade teacher. She is very nice and kind. She has beautiful brown hair, brown eyes, and AMAZING fashion. She is very funny, sometimes.... She takes amazing selfies. She gets mad if you don't do what she tells you. If you are not in 5th or 6th you probably don't know her.

I asked a few people what their favorite thing about Miss. Saxonis. Erica Delisola said, "Miss Saxonis is always offers to help, puts others before herself, and is gorgeous." Nina Tseitlin said, "Miss. Saxonis is really funny and makes Language Arts fun!" Anyways Miss Saxonis is the BEST TEACHER IN THE WORLD.
